

Job Posting: January 2, 2009

Education Coordinator

President Lincoln's Cottage
Washington, DC

President Lincoln's Cottage, the country home where Abraham Lincoln and his family spent a quarter of his presidency, seeks an energetic, creative and motivated educator. The Cottage opened to the public in February, 2008, so we are looking for someone who excels in developing, implementing and managing a growing education program that embraces the site's mission to engage audiences in exploring Abraham Lincoln's presidency and his commitment to the ideas of freedom, equality and union.

Areas of responsibility include planning and implementing programs for students of all ages and backgrounds including adult lifelong learners; organizing and overseeing a wide range of teachers' workshops; marketing and scheduling programs; and the recruitment, training, scheduling and evaluation of paid historical interpreters.

We seek a person committed to and experienced in creating meaningful partnerships within the broader community and with marketing programs to schools and other teaching organizations. We are looking for a strategic thinker and a self-starter who thrives in a creative team environment. Requirements include a Bachelor's degree in history, museum education, or a related field, and 3-5 years experience working in a museum or historic site.

To apply, please include your cover letter in the body of a message and email your resume as a Word, PDF or Text attachment to: 28952-CS-1124@nthp.hrmdirect.com . For more information, contact David Field, Manager of Recruitment & Outreach, National Trust for Historic Preservation, 1785 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20036, 202-588-6124.