

Reginald F. Lewis Museum of Maryland African American History & Culture Baltimore, Maryland

Available positions:

Assistant Curator/Historian (P/T, Temporary Contractual Position)

The Reginald F. Lewis Museum is seeking a historian with museum experience to serve as an Assistant Curator for current exhibition projects. The incumbent will research and develop history exhibitions, write text, and conduct oral histories. Must have an M.A. in History, African American Studies, or related field, with demonstrated experience developing historical exhibits or programs for the general public.

Please see www.africanamericanculture.org for full description. The initial temporary assignment period is March 15, 2010 through August 15, 2010. 20 hrs per week.

Curatorial Assistant (P/T, Temporary Contractual Position)

The Reginald F. Lewis Museum is seeking a researcher with excellent organizational and writing skills to serve as Curatorial Assistant in the Department of Collections and Exhibitions. Must have demonstrated knowledge of African American artists and contemporary art.

Please see www.africanamericanculture.org for full description. The initial temporary assignment period is March 15, 2010 through August 15, 2010. 20 hrs per week.